

Cookie Policy

Effective Date: 16 May 2018

A cookie is a small piece of data (text file) that a website – when visited by a user – asks your browser to store on your device in order to remember information about you, such as your language preference or login information. Those cookies are set by us and called first party cookies. We also use third party cookies – which are cookies from a domain different than the domain of the website you are visiting – for our advertising and marketing efforts.

More specifically, we use cookies and other tracking technologies for the following purposes:

- Assisting you in navigation;
- Assisting in registration to our events, login, and your ability to provide feedback;
- Analysing your use of our products, services or applications;
- Analyse customers' use of the Websites for performance analysis and statistic purposes.

Below is a detailed list of the cookies we use on our Website. Our Website is scanned with the OneTrust cookie scanning tool regularly to maintain a list as accurate as possible. We classify cookies in the following categories:

Contents

---

- 1.1. Strictly Necessary Cookies
- 1.2. Performance Cookies
- 1.3. Functional Cookies
- 1.4. Targeting Cookies

When first visiting our Websites, we will give you access to this policy and ask you to make a choice as to the acceptance or refusal of the use of third-party targeting cookies by our Websites. You can also object to the use of other cookie categories by clicking on the “cookie settings” button below, or by adjusting your web browser controls:

To simplify the use of our Websites, we recommend that you set your browser so that first party cookies are accepted.

Cookies will be erased by CHAMP after a 13 months’ period following to the date they were stored.

You are entitled to several rights described in our Websites’ Privacy Policy. For more information, you may contact our Corporate Data Protection Officer:
